PRESS RELEASE

The Ballad of Wee Willy Winky

OR : How To Find Purpose In A Rap Desert

25th November 2025 | The Jam Jar, Bristol

Bristol's own Binbag Wisdom are stepping into new territory with their first narrative stage show, "The Ballad of Wee Willy Winky".

Well known for their sharp lyricism and high-energy live performances, the group are now blending their trademark humour and honesty with theatre, storytelling, and raw live hip hop.

This new venture sees the crew exploring character, comedy and chaos in a way that pushes beyond a traditional gig. The Ballad of Wee Willy Winky follows an absurd, heartfelt and mischievous tale about searching for purpose in a life in the arts. Told entirely through rap and am-dram performance, It's equal parts musical, sketch show and UK hip-hop bangers. A playful experiment that keeps the audience guessing.

This marks the first time Binbag Wisdom will present the project in a full venue setting, taking place on Tuesday 25th November at The Jam Jar, Bristol. Friends, family, fans and members of the press are invited to join the crew for this exclusive preview performance and help spread the word about their new creative chapter.
